FRIENDLINESS

AND

TRADITION

Spirit is the extra effort every S.H.S. student makes to do his best. It is the bursting lungs at pep rallies. It is the Mr. Lumberjack mascot, the black and gold crepe paper streaming from the decorated cars. It is the after school "practice and planning session" that ensures a polished program. It is the extra studying to place higher in academic events. It is the unselfishly giving of oneself to make S.H.S. a better school. It makes the pep squad and band march snappily. It makes us sing the alma mater with enthusiasm, because the spirit of Springhill High gives us pride in ourselves and our school.

THIS IS THE SPIRIT . . .

THIS IS FRIENDLINESS

A cheery greeting to brighten a dismal day, an offer to explain a difficult assignment, a willingness to give a friend a ride, a determination to be pleasant, a joke shared with a friend, a warm and sincere smile—this is the friendliness. It gives direction to bewildered Freshmen; it makes new friendships and strengthens old ones. It removes jealousy and makes competition more interesting. It is the sore feet after much dancing; it is the sore hand after much applause. It is the wave of a hand and an open heart. Because of it, laughter is shared; and dreams, discussed. This is friendliness.

*Leaves would look
new than my hair
Jean*

THIS IS THE TRADITION

Tradition is our Lumberjack mascot, our Senior Rings, our commencement exercise. It is the pep squad, the letter jackets, the caps and gowns. It is the anxious waiting for election results, the announcement of Miss Lumberjack. It is the coronation of queens, the announcement of the Honor Society, the Hall of Fame. Rivalry with the Crimson Tide is keen because of it. Homecoming, yellow mums with black satin ribbons, the kiss Mr. Cooper gives the queen—all are because of tradition. Ordering invitations, C average Seniors exempt from final exams, the Honors Assembly, Baccalaureate, and finally graduation—May the Traditions of S.H.S. live on!

Dedication

During our high school years, there have been many times when we have needed help and guidance. It was during these times that we found we could always depend on Mr. Shaw. Whenever we have needed advice, this man could always be counted on to give us wise counsel and correct answers to our questions. Mr. Shaw has taught us good citizenship, respect, and honor in addition to helping us gain unity as a student body.

To you, Mr. Melvin Shaw, we, the yearbook staff of 1964, dedicate the Lumberjack, in return for these priceless gifts of knowledge.

Mr. Cooper's 11th Year As SHS's Principal

Holding the office of principal of Springhill High School for 11 years, Mr. E. O. Cooper has guided the school to progress. Many new programs have been the result of his unceasing effort to make the school atmosphere one in which learning can be done most effectively.

The office of principal requires devotion to duty and love of students. Mr. Cooper is representative of this spirit, the tradition, and the friendliness of S.H.S.

Homecoming Queen

On October 31, the Homecoming celebrations officially began with the presentation of the Queen and her court at the traditional assembly. They were escorted by five of the senior football players. During the assembly former cheerleaders led the student body in familiar yells. Friday afternoon the various clubs presented their float masterpieces in the parade. Marilyn Slack a lovely senior reigned over the festivities with a court of four maids: Flo Reynolds, senior; Barbara Slack, junior; Lela Smith, sophomore, and Sheryl Hall, freshman.

The queen and her court were presented at the pre-game ceremonies and were escorted across the field by former Lumberjack football players. Climaxing the festivities, Mr. Cooper crowned Queen Marilyn and gave her the traditional kiss. The Queen accompanied by her court ascended the throne to reign over the remaining events.

Cheerleaders Take 5 First Places

Memories of cheerleader school attended in Natchitoches last summer still remain—Up at 5:30, sore muscles, sore throats, heat—practice—practice—practice—pep meetings, bonfires, and more practice. Stamina was rewarded! Five 1st place ribbons and a trophy!

From September through February the cheerleaders reaped results from their training. They worked at practice sessions, at pep rallies, at games—Football and Basketball—They made signs, they planned programs, they decorated goal posts. Always attractive and amiable, they worked in everyday life to promote school spirit and good sportsmanship.

Pelican

Pelican State, held annually during August, is intended to educate youth in the duties, privileges, rights, and responsibilities of American citizenship. For one week the citizens of the mythical state organize their own city, parish, and state governments. They choose their officials, introduce and argue bills in the legislature, and learn that government is just what each citizen makes it.

Pelican staters learn the meaning of caucus and campaigning and experience the novelty of living away from the outside world. Work begins when the bus stops! "March" and "Muster" become familiar words, but every moment from the first meeting until the Governor's Ball is a rewarding experience.

Delegates are chosen by faculty members and former "Pelican Staters." Mary Payne Allen, Jean Anne Riley, Marilyn Slack, and Diane Nickerson were our representatives to Girls' State. Jerry Mayfield, Loye McIlveene, Kenneth Cone, and Mike Corbell went to Boys' State.

FIRST ROW: Teresa Cochran, Gayle Boucher, Beverly Harrison, Diane Nesbit, Mary Payne Allen, Ruth Johnson.
 SECOND ROW: Mary Anne Hendrix, Marilyn Slack, Nancy Cooper, Jan McWilliams, Judy Tripp.
 THIRD ROW: Marion Franks, Diane Nickerson, and Jack Boozer.

The Leadership Conference held at LSU each summer is designed to develop leadership in group activities. Outstanding boys and girls, having completed their junior year and having been recommended by their sponsor, are eligible for selection.

Four areas of interest are available for study. Journalism has two divisions—one for publishing a high school paper and one for editing a high school yearbook. There are also classes in library training, speech, and recreation.

Teresa Cochran, Nancy Cooper, and Mary Anne Hendrix represented the student council. Marilyn Slack, Jan McWilliams, Beverly Harrison, and Jack Boozer represented the Axe Staff. Diane Nickerson, Mary Payne Allen, Gayle Boucher, and Judy Tripp were Lumberjack representatives. Ruth Johnson and Dianne Nesbit represented the Dramatics Club. Marion Franks represented the school in speech.

Hendrina Van Helton

Exchange Student

Everyone went "Dutch" to celebrate "Henny" week! Henny Van Helten, foreign exchange student from Rotterdam, Holland, arrived in Springhill in August, 1963, to spend a year in the home of her American parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clary Anthony, and to attend S.H.S. From the first, she entered enthusiastically into everything. A Spanish dance—a Dutch folk song—a beautiful smile—a lovely "lady"—these things we will remember as we think of Henny.

Majorettes

Practice makes perfect! That's why the majorettes delighted football fans with their many performances. Especially entertaining was their flag routine.

Lumberjack Staff

Diane is assisted by Janis . . .

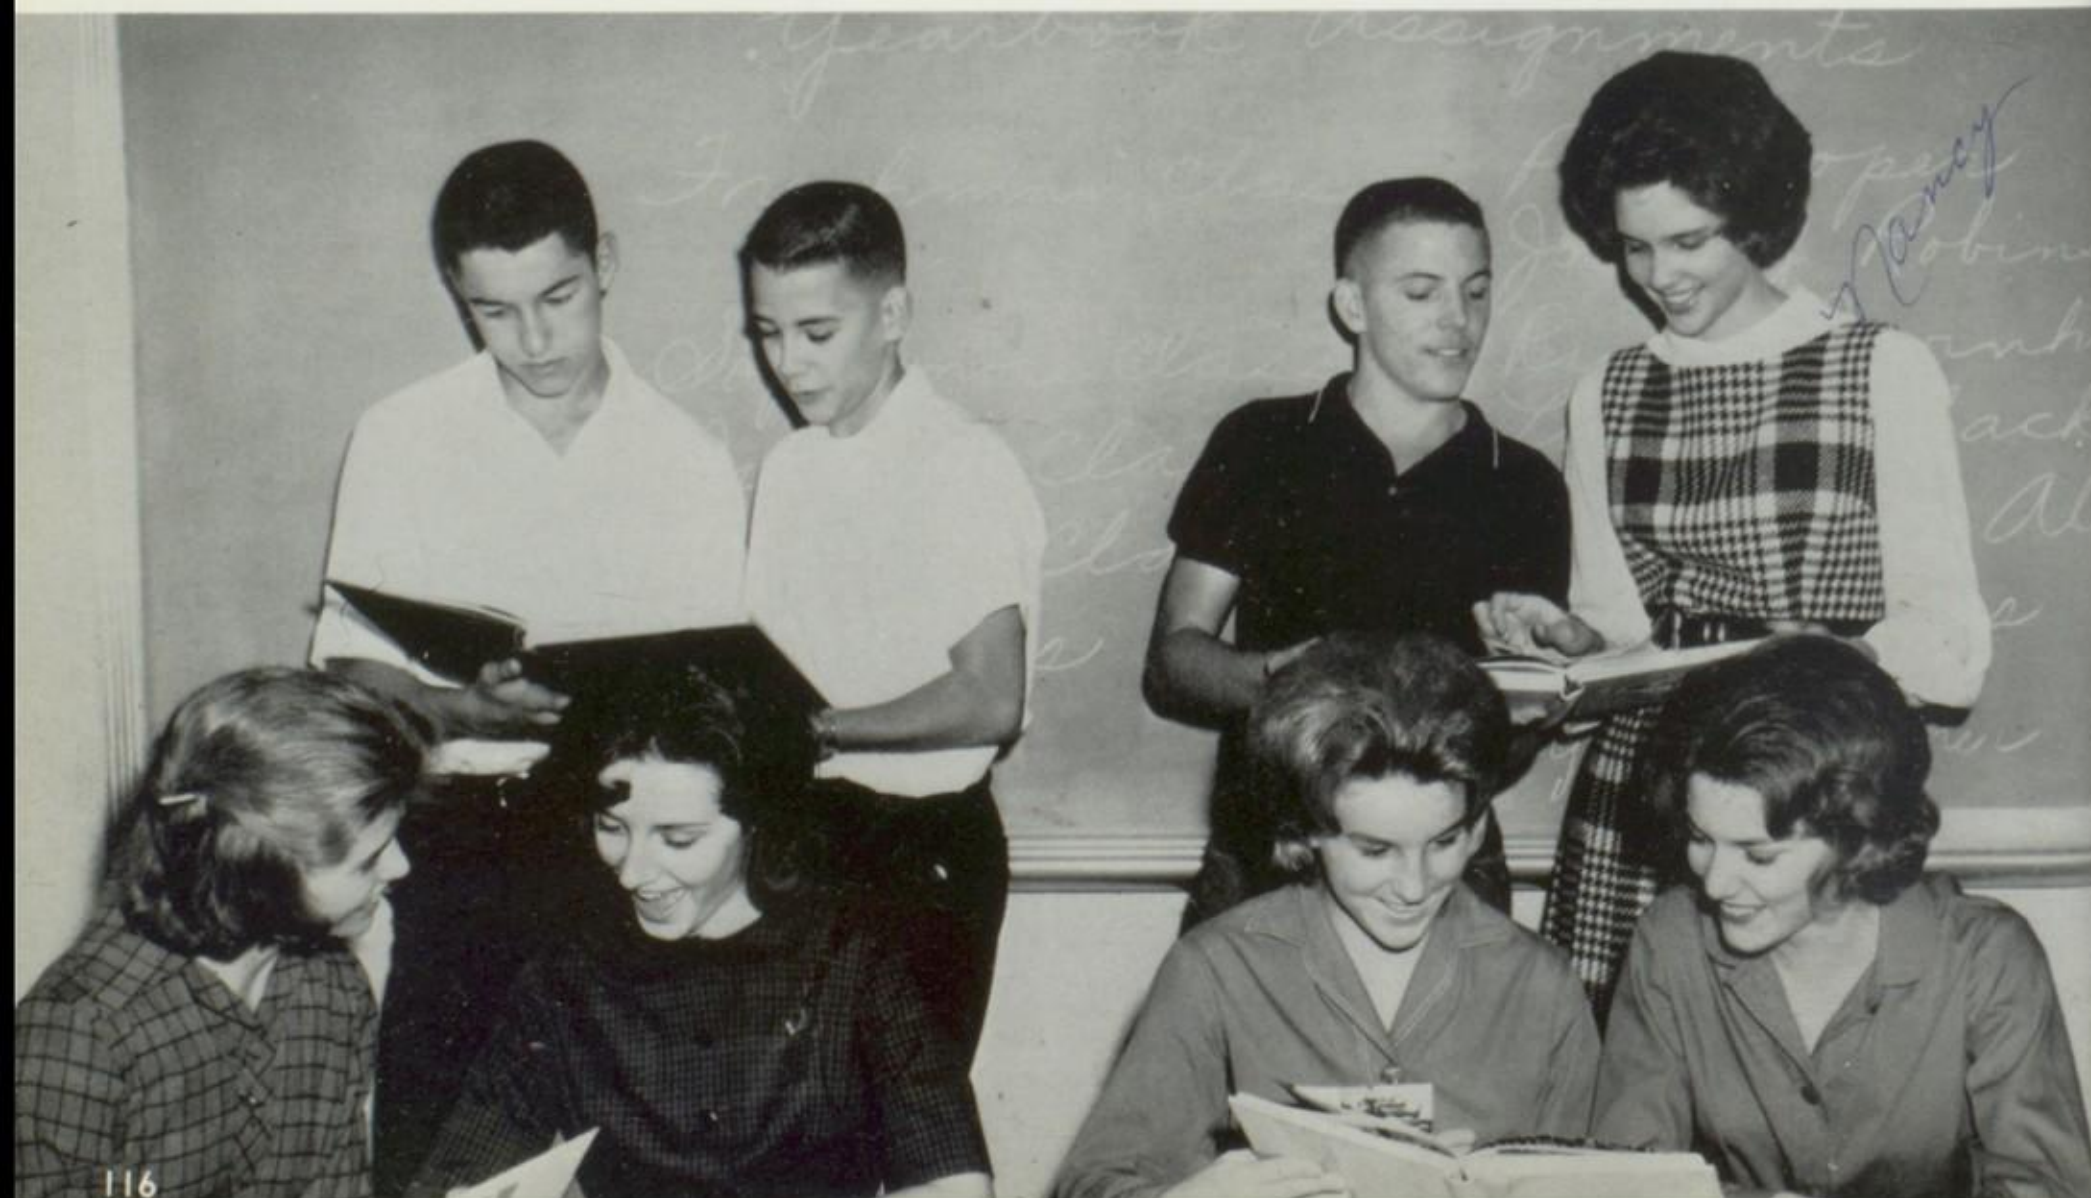

Our distinguished photographer . . .

Hours of toil—pounding the typewriter, looking for pictures, and typing up odds and ends . . . went into the production of the 1964 LUMBERJACK.

Diane Nickerson officiated as Editor-in-chief. After stories were in, pictures were complete, and advertisements worked out, came the task of co-ordinating efforts with the printers. Plodding through seemingly unnecessary procedure and technicalities, the copy finally got off.

Now that all is through and the book is out, we who helped to make it can look back at the year behind, and think "Well, it was hard, but it was worth it."

SEATED: Linda Slack, Gayle Boucher, Janis Nations, Lynda Anthony.

Gary Pool is assisted by Mrs. Branch and Mr. Rhodes, the sponsors.

Working together, the annual staff planned layouts, made assignments, typed copy, selected and organized pictures, and checked numerous little details.

Work on the publication started early in the year and it was a long, grinding task until publication in May.

And always behind the scenes were Mrs. Dorothy Branch and Mr. Lynwood Rhodes. The excellent photography throughout the book, which captured S.H.S. life and preserved it for all time, is a product of Joe Barberousse, our photographer.

This is THE LUMBERJACK, 1964 edition. A yearbook is more than a book . . . it is a thing that almost lives and breathes. It is looked forward to all year and cherished forever. The 1964 LUMBERJACK should be no exception.

Gayle Boucher works on school life section.

One of the more "elite" organizations is composed of students that have shown exceptional ability in the field of journalism.

Giving freely of their time, these were the students that worked late after school to put the "AXE" on the tables every six weeks.

The Presidents Club works as a school co-ordinating group with the student council to prevent three cake sales the same day or two dances the same night. By meeting together and listing the dates of all special events, conflicts are avoided.

No special projects are adopted by the group. Their purpose is to prove "United we stand, divided we fall."

Margaret Smith relaxes between meetings.

We're going to have a hootenanny!

Planning and putting on 18 assemblies, holding school elections, sponsoring the exchange program, and publishing a handbook kept the Student Council busy. Meanwhile, they gave two Hootenanny performances, sponsored "Dam the Tide" and "Henny" week, and helped organize the Plain Dealing Student Council. Mrs. Flanakin, Mr. Merritt, and Mr. Rhodes are student council sponsors.

Homeroom Representatives and Alternates

Homeroom representatives, members of the Student Council, are the liaison between the council and the student body. They make certain that the projects of the council are completed. Clean up day, door decorations, money collection, annual sales, and homeroom elections fall within their responsibility. No council is better than its homeroom representatives.

Alternates are equally important, for the responsibility to serve often rests upon them.

Chorus students are those who have the ability to sing, some knowledge of music, and a keen desire to learn. Each member must be willing to uphold the high standards of this group. Chorus is a regular class that meets one hour per day five days a week. One-half credit is given for the subject.

Chorus membership provides an opportunity for performing in assemblies and provides members with a knowledge that can be used and enjoyed throughout life.

The 1964 SHS chorus, directed by Miss Maxine Milner, presented a Christmas concert and a spring concert. This group of seventy coeds attended a spring music festival in Ruston.

They (Two Letter)

It has been a long time since anyone called you that hasn't it! We have come along way since that day. Now, we are seniors. It is so hard to believe
I won't believe it until graduation night.
Then everyone will realize. I am (along with a lot of others) going to have some great fun graduation night. The trip will really be booming with kids from good old S.H.S. I can hardly to see all those kids that pretended to be so goody goody over there. That I can't wait to see.

Enough about the future. Now about now and the past. I have really enjoyed being friends with you. I hope we continue to be friends always. We have had some good times haven't we? I will never forget that night you, Jimmy Don, Travis, & somebody else followed Janie & I home.
Jimmy Don told me to kiss his --- I told him to drop his pants and he did. Also, I will never forget Hope and the way those people stared at us when we danced. I guess they thought we could dance good ~~for~~ or something. Anyway, I believe we all had a good time.

DR. ROYCE L. McMAHEN

They, may you always have the best life has to offer because you are such a deserving boy. Let's of luck in everything you attempt do. Remember believe in and trust in God. He will never fail you or lead you wrong. Also, if you ever need any help with anything, I am always available.

May we be friends forever. When we graduate, we will go separate ways, but I hope to see you now & then. Love you,
Dad

GOOD WORK, CLASS OF '64
Your Graduation Is An Important Achievement!

The road to success has many branches. Choose yours carefully and set your goal high. It will take hard work and much courage, but in the end you will achieve your goal, for in America you still have the right to choose your trade or profession or to go into business for yourself.
